JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGH SCHOOL

foreword

The 1955 Beauvoir has only one purpose . . . to catch and hold for you this year at Jefferson Davis. With this in mind, we have tried to capture the spirit of the most outstanding thing at Davis . . . the crowd.

With an enrollment of 2400, Davis has within its walls this year the largest enrollment in its history. Evidence of this is found in the steaming locker rooms, in the jammed halls, in the crowded classrooms, and in the increased number of faculty members. Jefferson Davis may never again have this peak in enrollment.

We dedicate this 29th volume of the Beauvoir to the 449 members of the graduating class.

Seniors start the first day of their last year with the right spirit.

Looks like the camera won — hands down!

Civic-minded students obviously don't have their minds on civics.

Dig that solid square . . . geometrically speaking.

Hide the still, quick! Here come the revueuers!

Skirts Ahoy!!

Eddie Kalil finds more than one delectable dish in the cafeteria.

Awaiting the signal to switch on the public address is Ronald Baker, one of the many morning announcers.

"I give up!" is what this Livingston player seems to be saying to Davis' Paul Benton.

At their banquet, senior volleyball girls, Virginia, Doris, and Donnie peer at Miss Honeycutt behind her orchid.

A sprinkling of sequins, candles, leaves, and the work of senior Junior Red Cross members, Gay, Jewel, and Annie Jane go into the centerpiece for the Veterans' Hospital.

Atten-shun! Lieutenant-Colonel Roger Baker and Honor Guard present R.O.T.C. Sweetheart, Helen Harper, with corsage.

"Oh, somewhere the sun is shining, and somewhere hearts are gay . . ."

"Whip, crack away, whip, crack away . . ." sings Dorothy Lily.

At P.T.A. meeting proud father says to Loretta, "This is art?!"

So this is what happens to all the lab assistants!

The Reagan game? It's in the bag . . . the pop-corn, that is.

I'm down here now, but what was I going to say?

Sorry sock-hoppers, no curb-service!

In commemoration of the first United States Day, this assembly was presented in the auditorium honoring those who helped to build the foundation upon which our nation stands.

Liberty, Equality, and Justice are the cornerstones of America and the ties that hold these states united.

Liberty's torch is the beacon of welcome

for all those who seek the light of freedom.

H.S. TELEVISION STUDIO A

Martha Kay Jones rolls her eyes to the tune of "By the Sea" on the Hit Parade program.

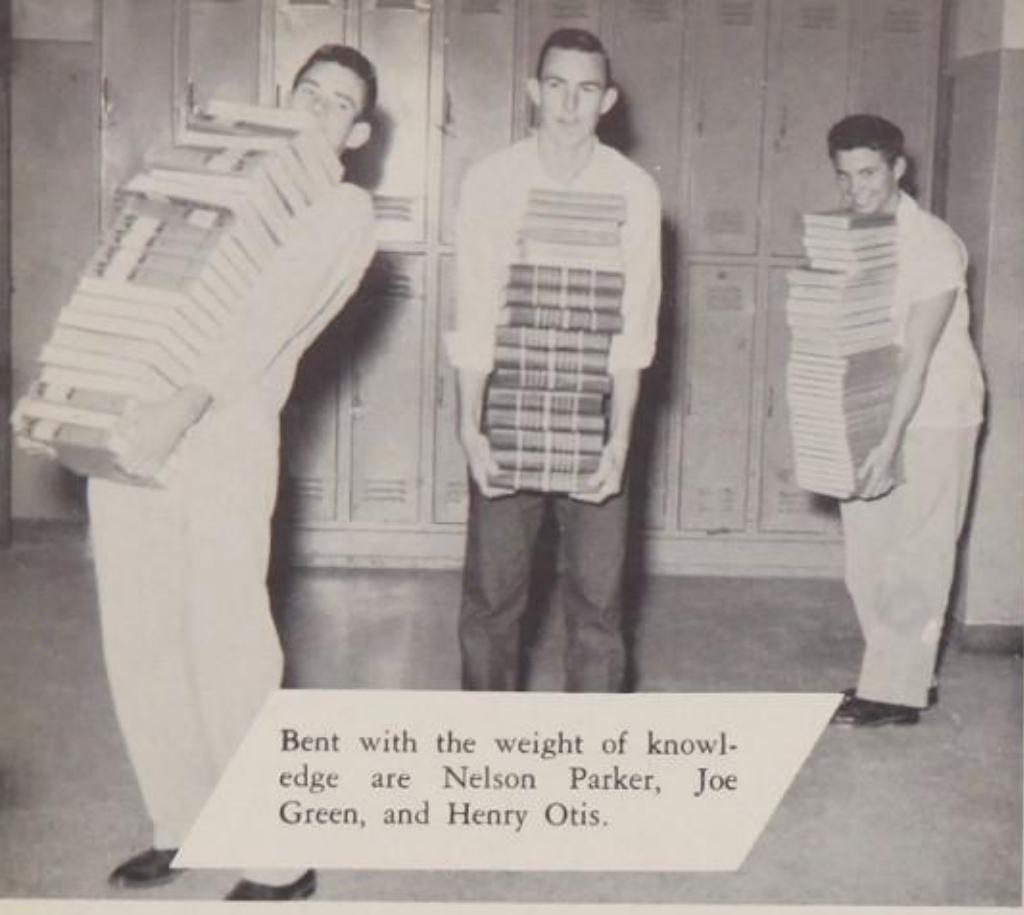

John Trapolino . . . Davis' madcap Michaelangelo, adds the finishing touches.

Tri-Hi-Y girls, Betty Fones, Elaine Phillips, and Vinita Miller give "service with a smile" at the banquet given to honor the football team.

Cakes, corsages, and cokes bring happy smiles to Miss Simpson at her birthday party.

Bent with the weight of knowledge are Nelson Parker, Joe Green, and Henry Otis.

As shepherds watched their flock by night, the Star of Hope shone unto them . . .

These could be fresh-air enthusiasts, but Gerald, Robert, Pat, and Charles look more like just a lazy foursome.

Sock-hoppers compare saucy socks at the band-sponsored Strutters' Ball.

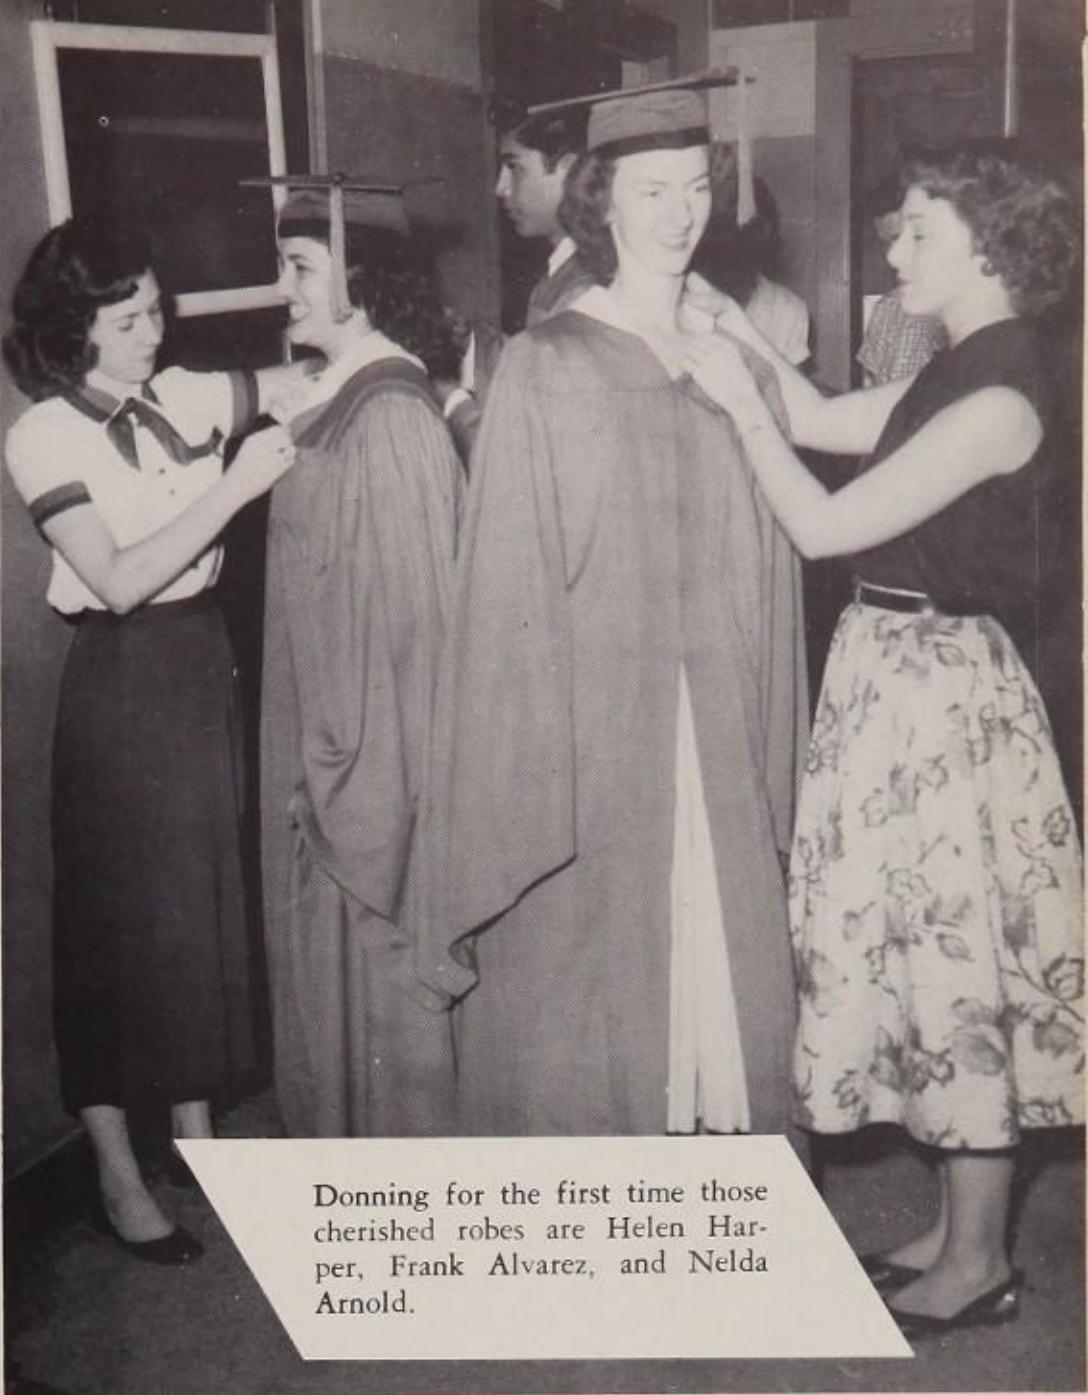

Futures of mid-term graduates are in the hands of Donald Barnfield, Joy Morgan, Darrell Dean, and Donovan Webb, the Prophecy Committee.

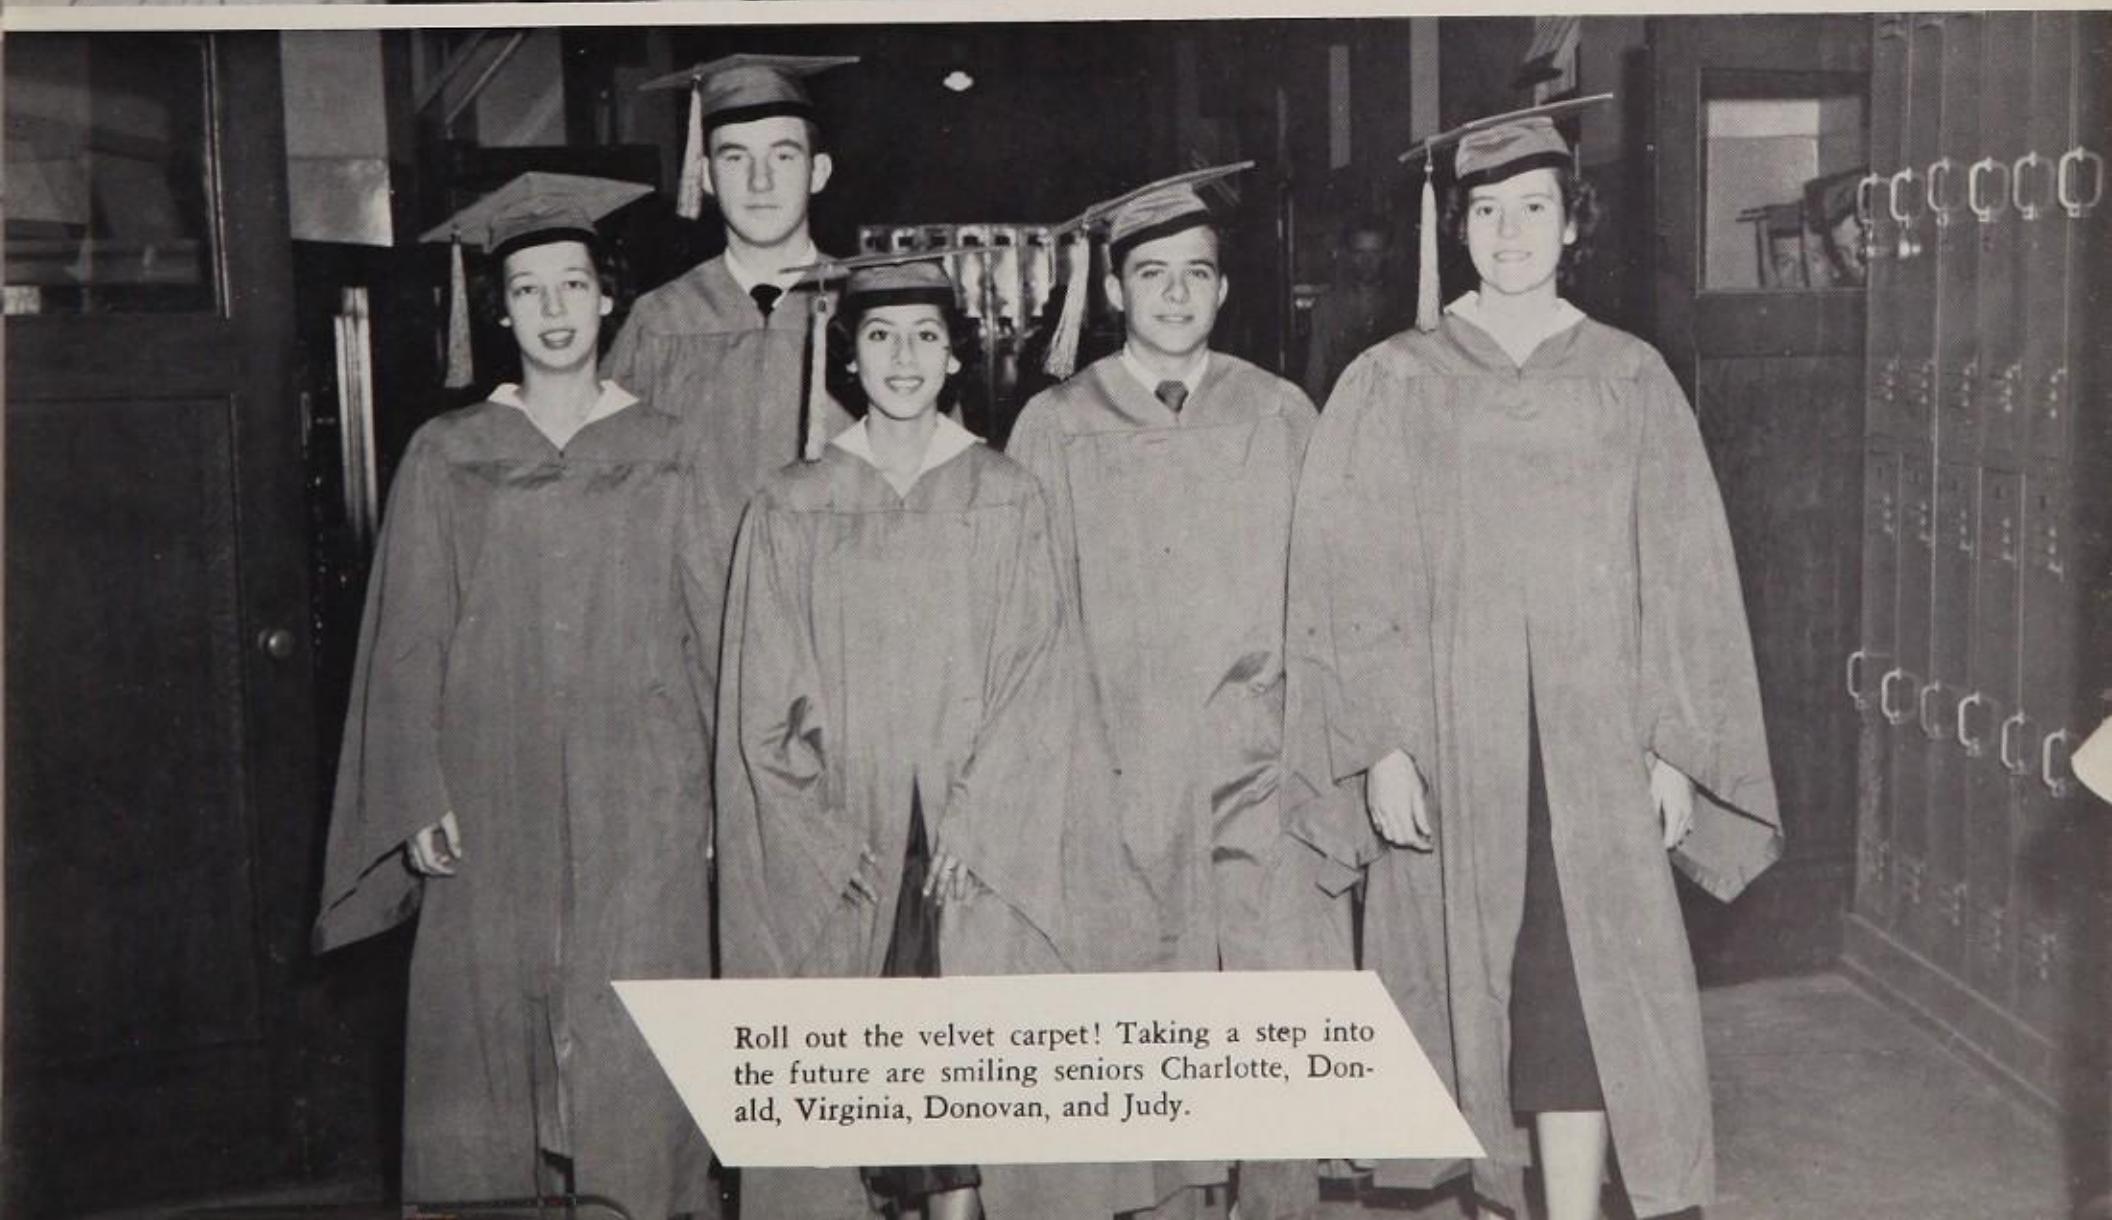

Davis students become modern-day stars of hope as they prepared Christmas baskets for needy families.

Ray Perrigan has his senior picture signed by Betty Hartnett, Clara Massey, Joyce Finke, and Jo Ann Etheridge.

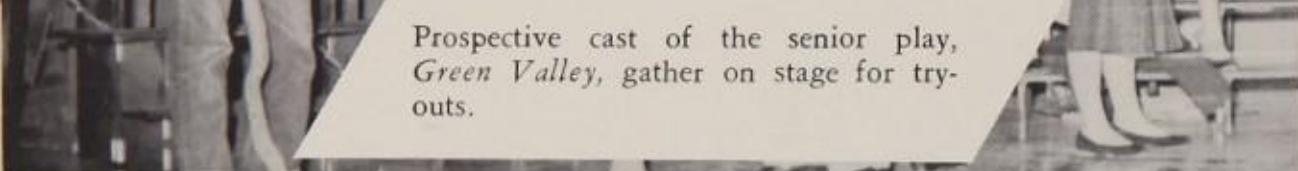

Donning for the first time those cherished robes are Helen Harper, Frank Alvarez, and Nelda Arnold.

Roll out the velvet carpet! Taking a step into the future are smiling seniors Charlotte, Donald, Virginia, Donovan, and Judy.

Prospective cast of the senior play, Green Valley, gather on stage for try-outs.

Between dances at the Sweethearts Ball are Larry Sturm, Yvonne Garney, Floyd King, and Judy Carswell.

James Grutzmacher proudly escorts Anabelle Wrobliske to the senior prom.

All eyes are on the procession of seniors as they walk down the aisle to receive their diplomas.

national honor society

The Jefferson Davis Chapter of the National Honor Society is an organization composed of students who have met the highest standards in leadership, service, character, and scholarship. The object is to stimulate and develop these character traits in the Davis pupils. The N.H.S. yearly sponsors the "Fall Frolics" Dance to raise money for the Dental Loan Fund and to support all worthy school projects.

thespians

Curtain time! In order to bring more and better entertainment to students, the Drama Department has organized the Davis Chapter of the National Thespian Society, a club composed of advanced drama students. The purpose of the club is to create an active and intelligent interest in drama and give students experience in acting and a deeper appreciation of drama.

y-teens

Calling all girls, calling all girls! The Y-Teen Club calls all girls to join in its activities which include world fellowship projects, Easter pageants, co-ed dances, and Inter-Club Councils. Through these activities, the members strive to achieve their purpose of growing as a person, growing in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and growing in the knowledge and love of God.

terpsichore club

It sounds as if the girls in this modern dance club chose a name merely to tongue-tie everyone. Terpsichore, however, was the name of the Greek Muse of Dance. Girls in this club perform in school assemblies, benefit shows and out of town programs. Through modern dance they achieve grace and poise, and even create their own dance patterns.

art service association

Do you need scenery for a play, or an advertisement for your club? If so, call upon the Art Club to make the props and publicity posters you need. The members of this organization will gladly perform services such as decorating and stage modeling for other organizations that may lack that artistic touch.

forensic society

Speech! Speech! Members of this club do not have to be urged to make a speech. They participated in debates, declamations, and poetry reading in the Interscholastic League Contest and this year, members traveled to Waco, Alice, Nacogdoches, and San Antonio to participate in speech tournaments. The purpose of the Forensic Society is to interest high school students throughout the nation in good speech and to hold their interest until effectiveness is acquired.

american junior red cross

Are the boxes tightly packed? Have the airplanes been delivered? These are some of the questions you'll hear when the members of the Junior Red Cross pack food parcel boxes for overseas, or assemble toys to be sent to orphanages. High school girls and boys in this junior chapter of the American Red Cross donate their time and energy to create good fellowship all over the world by furnishing the underprivileged, the shut-ins, and the handicapped with entertainment and deeds of service.

key club

At last! No girls! No, this club isn't a haven for girl haters, but it is strictly for the boys. The Key Club is a junior service organization sponsored by the Kiwanis. Its purpose is to serve the community, and school, and to teach citizenship and leadership. The main activity this year will be a "Cure Vandalism" program.

distributive education

The primary aim of the Distributive Education Clubs of America is the development of a high degree of leadership and citizenship in the students of today who are destined to take their places as tomorrow's leaders in the distributive business. Members of this club take three basic subjects at school and get credit for working at their jobs the other three periods. They attend a state convention once a year and sponsor an annual Employee-Employer Banquet.

vocational industrial club

A new club in Jeff Davis this year is the Vocational Industrial Club. It is affiliated with the state organization of the same name whose purpose it is to unite in a common bond students in vocational industrial classes in the various high schools in Texas. Members of this club work together to promote high standards of workmanship, scholarship, trade ethics, and safety. They hope through their activities such as field trips and industrial tours to develop a knowledge of industrial organization and the inter-dependence of workers.

future farmers of america

This year the FFA proudly announces its sweetheart, Lois Wroten, a real beauty. FFA stands for Future Farmers of America, an organization whose aim is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. Besides sponsoring a sweetheart contest, boys in this organization sponsor a Father and Son barbecue, field trips and tours, and participate in livestock judging contests. Should you want to know anything about pigs, chickens, wheat or potatoes, just ask one of these future farmers.

beauty culture

Pony tails! Poodles! Shaggies! No, it's not a circus, dog, or pony show; these are just some of the hair styles perfectly executed by members of the Beauty Culture Club. The purpose of this club is to advertise beauty culture to the student body. Various activities include participation in beautician style shows, lectures to health education classes, picnics in the spring, and a tea for new students.

christian student union

"The devotional this morning will be brought by....."

Have you wondered who organizes the devotionals and assures us an inspirational thought to start each day? This is one of the main activities of the Davis Christian Student Union. Members of this club work together to create a more Christ-like spirit in the school and to promote a fellowship between Christians of various denominations. Programs at the weekly meetings include hymn-singing, devotionals, testimonials and talks by visitors. Everyone in school is a prospective member.

Mrs. Donaldson, one of the guest speakers, is pictured with officers of the C. S. U.

tri-hi-y

The Tri-Hi-Y Club is the sister organization of the Hi-Y. Members of this club strive to create, maintain, and establish in the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. To carry out this purpose these girls participate in an annual Easter Pageant, and contribute to a World Service fund for underprivileged people. Representatives are selected to go to Austin, Texas, to participate in the Youth-in-Government activities.

office helpers

A student lost! A book returned! A teacher missing! The Davis Lost and Found Department! No, those are just some of the problems that the office helpers solve every day. The various duties of these boys and girls include answering the telephone, collecting absentee cards and class reports, working the files, and running the many errands that such busy offices demand.

library club

Behind the scenes in the library club members learn about libraries, prepare bulletins, displays, broadcasts and book reviews, keep the library in order, mend the books, work, and in general keep library machinery working. For extra stimulation they participate in the district and state Teen Age Library Association meetings, where they meet and exchange ideas with club members from all over the state. Membership in the Library Club is open to all students who are interested in library activities.

k.p. klub

Scrub those pans! Wash those plates! Actually, members of the K. P. Club do not receive orders like these, but they perform a valuable service to the school by making the cafeteria a more enjoyable place in which to eat. They take care of the sandwich bar and the water glasses for the convenience of the students. Another important duty of the K. P. members is to keep the tables clean for the students having the next lunch period.

orchestra

"Instruments sound sweetest when they be touched softest." In contrast to spirited music played by the band, the orchestra gives us the sweeter music heard at Jeff Davis. To develop an understanding of applied instrumental music for pleasure and service to the school is the primary aim of the members of the orchestra. They perform at several assemblies during the school year and at commencement programs. They often feature string ensembles and solos.

The Girls' Chorus is composed of advanced music students. Its purposes are to become acquainted with good choral literature, develop into an artistic singing ensemble, entertain for school and community organizations, and derive pleasure from singing. The major project this year was the acquisition of new uniforms. The activities of the Girls' Chorus include singing for the annual Thanksgiving and Christmas school programs, the Music Festival, local Kiwanis and Rotary Club luncheons, and Houston P-TA Council.

carlton cadettes

This year, as every year, the Carlton Cadettes have carried out to the fullest extent their triple purpose of promoting interest in school activities, fostering good fellowship, and encouraging scholarship. They have promoted interest in school activities by drilling at football games, cheering the basketball team, and supporting the track and baseball teams. They have fostered good fellowship through their annual Sweetheart Ball and Mother-Daughter Banquet, through support of social functions sponsored by other school organizations, through their participation in the annual Veterans' Poppy Sale, and through the publishing of the student directory. They have encouraged scholarship by urging each Cadette to do her best, and by giving special recognition to all Cadettes making the honor roll. With the guidance of Mrs. Mitch, and the leadership of Major Virginia Scroggin and other officers the Carlton Cadettes strive to be worthwhile representatives of the Davis student body.

volleyball team

Coach, MISS HONEYCUTT; Captain, DONNIE ENGLISHBEE; Co-Captain, NORMA SAVOY Manager, DORIS SUE JONES; Assistant Manager, WANDA RILEY

Savoy, Flores, Arredondo, Jones, Noe, Fraley, Cantwell, Davis, Nichols, Ivey, Anderson, Lanclos, Lovelady, Bourke, Carroll, Riley, Gott, Gomez, Lester, Magee, Englishbee.

Volleyball is a popular sport. Murna Noe sets up the ball to Tommie Anderson as Starglene Ivey, Elois Davis, and Virginia Bourke wait to return the ball.

Lois Ann Wroten is learning to make a bed and Margy Smith shows Ila Dale Cupp and Kathryn Alford the correct way to put on a pillow case.

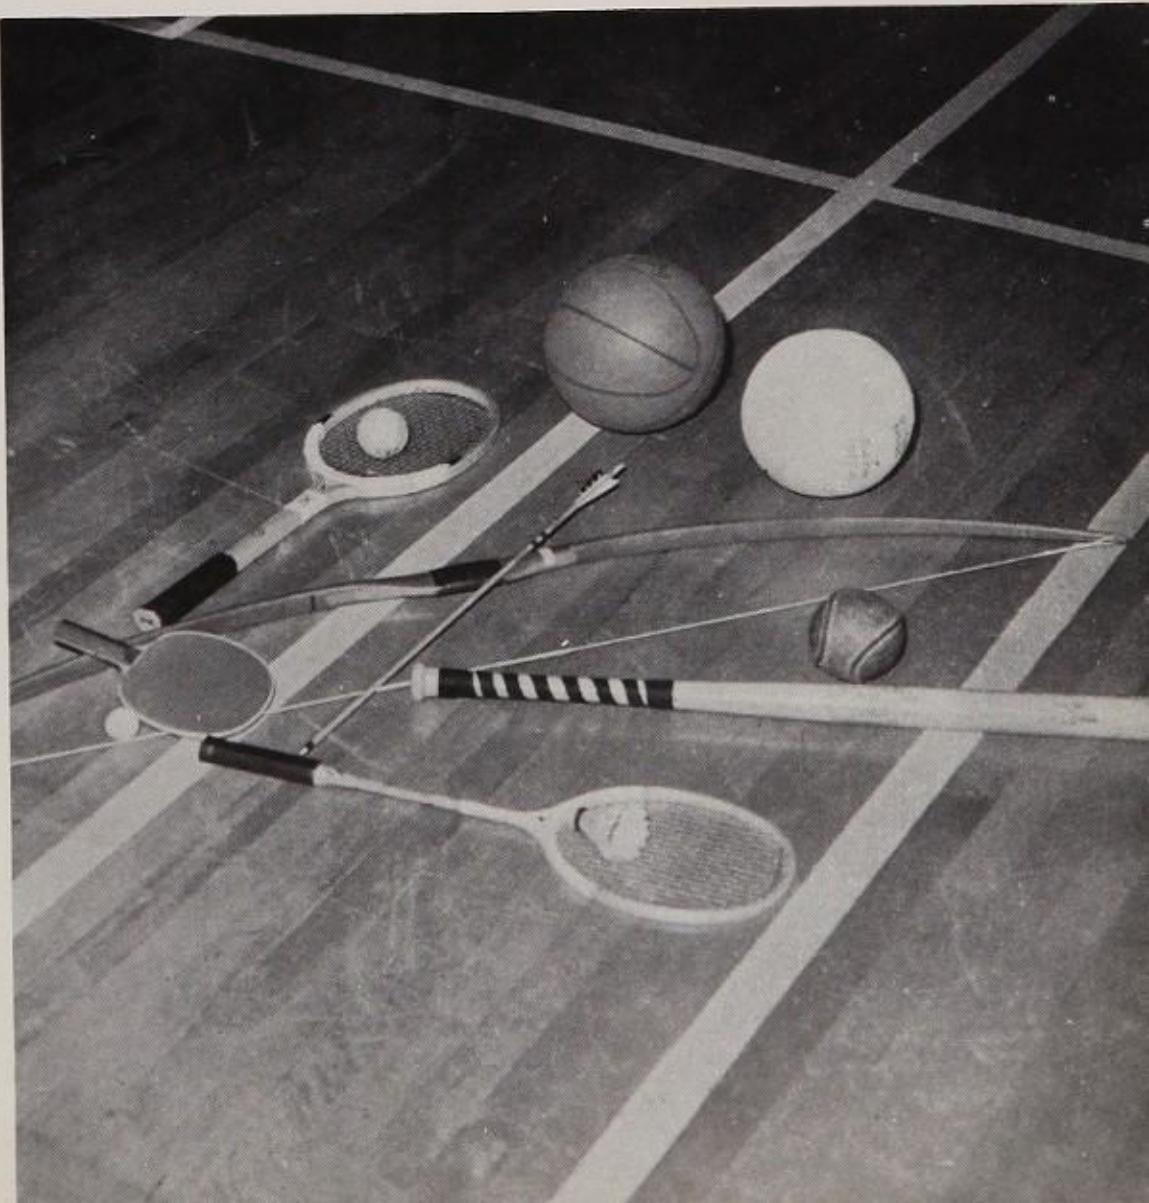

Health, a required subject for all sophomore girls, is being illustrated by Lois Grempczyski.

Alice Hinojosa is applying an arm bandage for Gwen Clements. These girls are learning the fundamentals in First Aid.

The equipment that girls use in gym is important.

Basketball is one of the roughest games the girls play. Udine Whitley is guarding Patsy Ruth Ryan shooting at the basket.

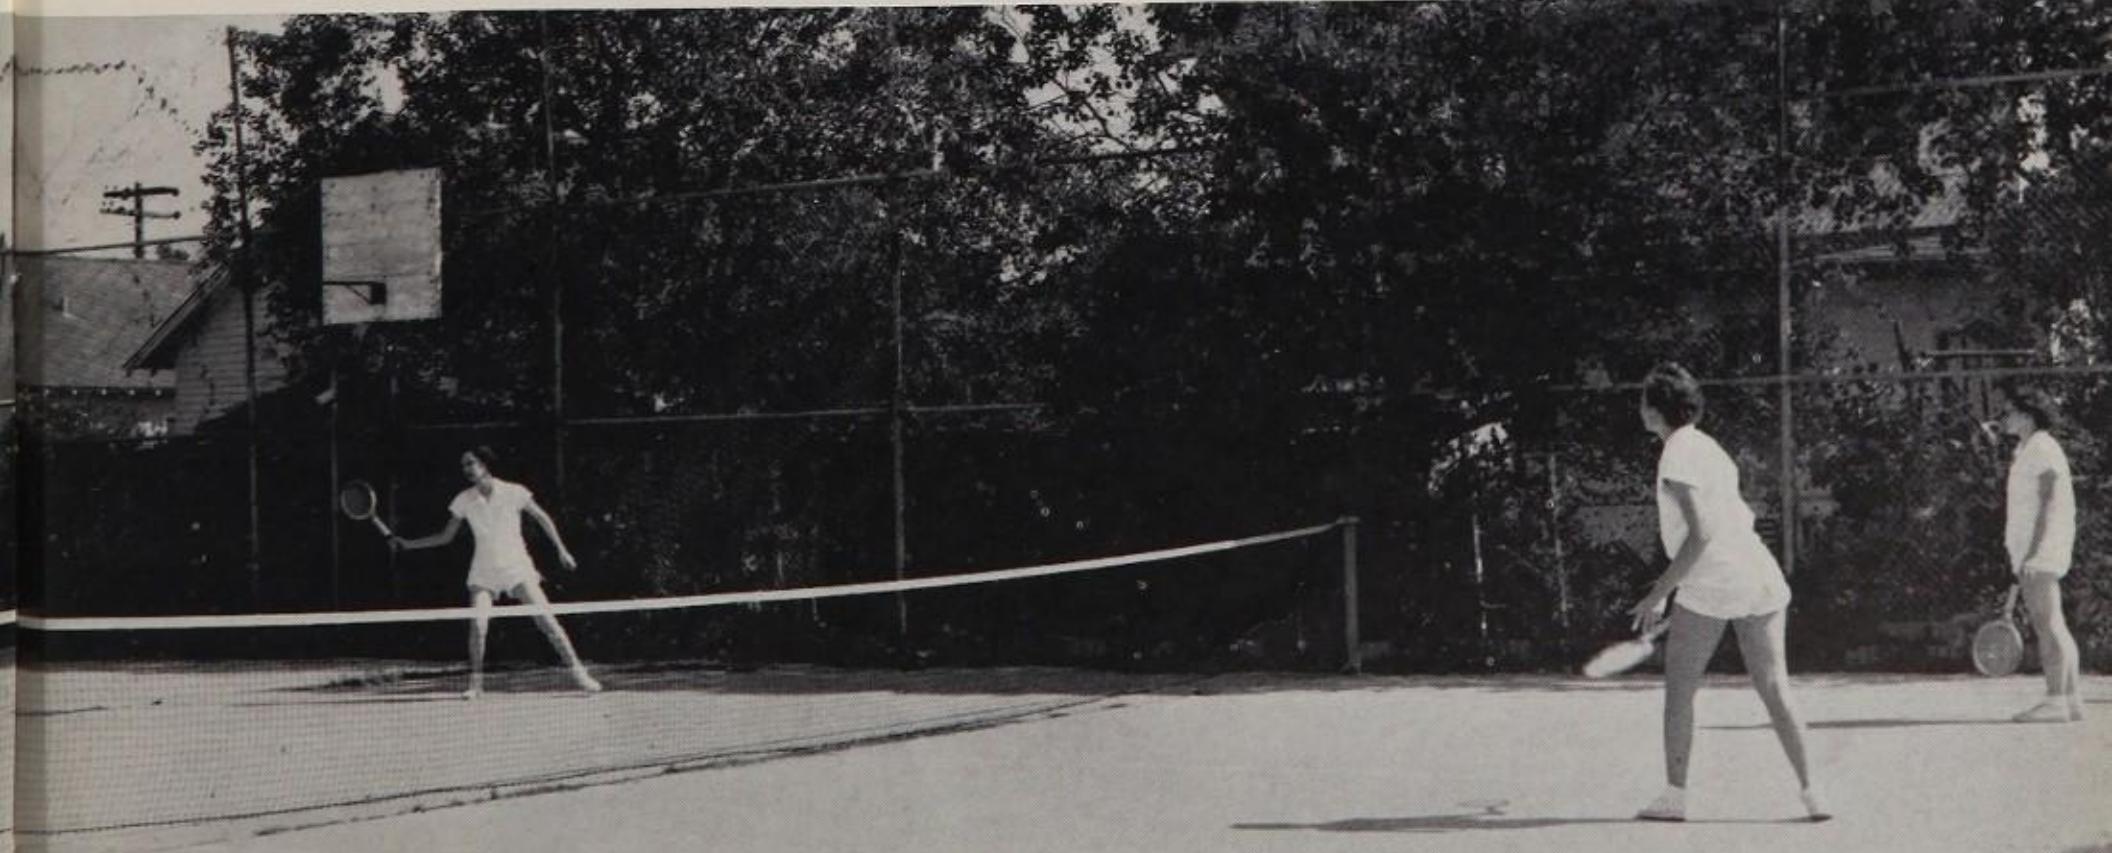

Vinita Miller, Jane Marlow, Dacie Walters, Velma O'Shield, Yvonne Harrison, and Aileen Gott are demonstrating Modest Dance warm-up exercises.

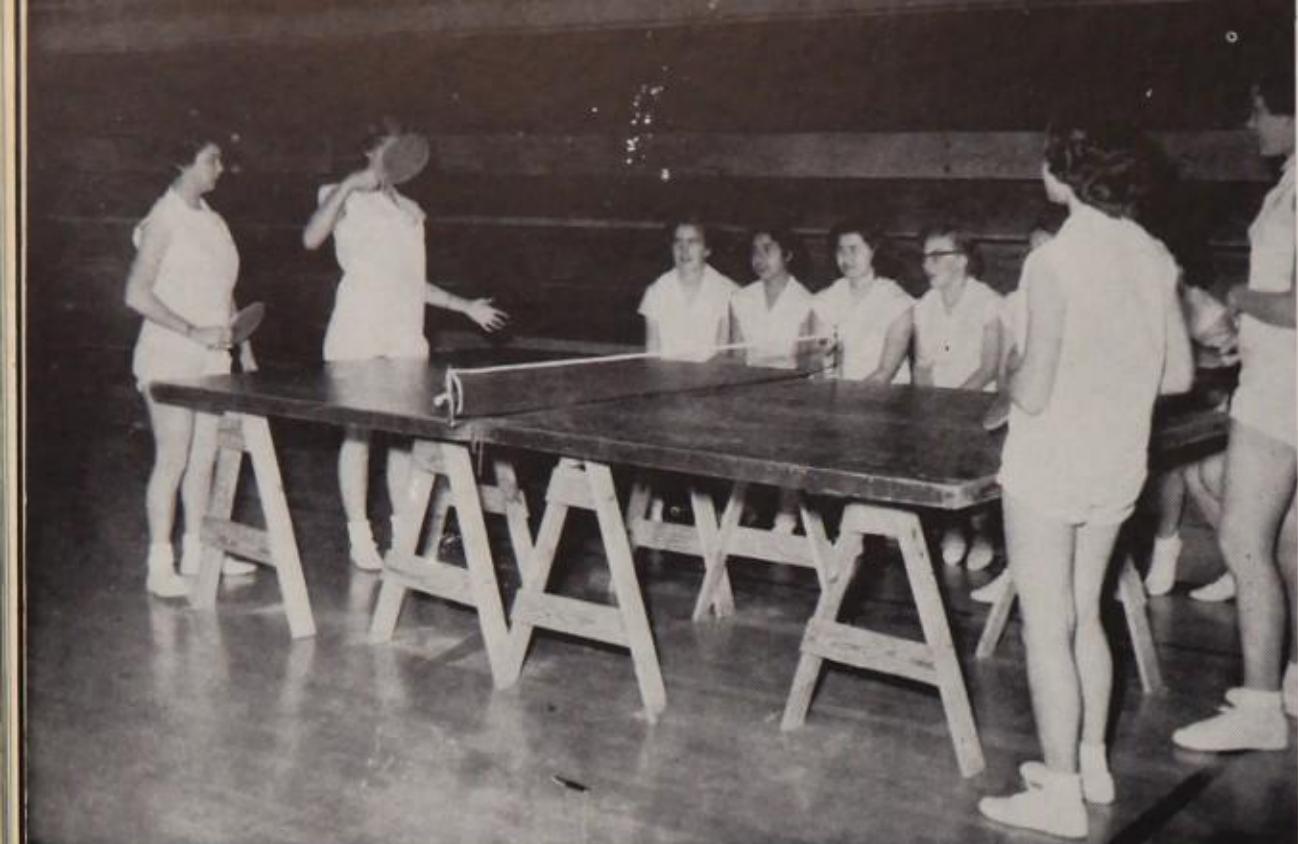

Tommie Anderson, Shirley Speer, Udine Whitley and Jean Wilkins play a lively game of tennis.

Developing archery skills are Emily Buselmeier, Murna Noe, and Wanda Cochran.

Ping Pong is a game for the girls who like mild exercise.

senior gym

Hale, Fones, Buckow, Lee,
McClung, Lewis, Brooks,
Beasley, Englishbee, Jones,

"Three strikes and you're out," is the old saying being proved by Ann Beasley.

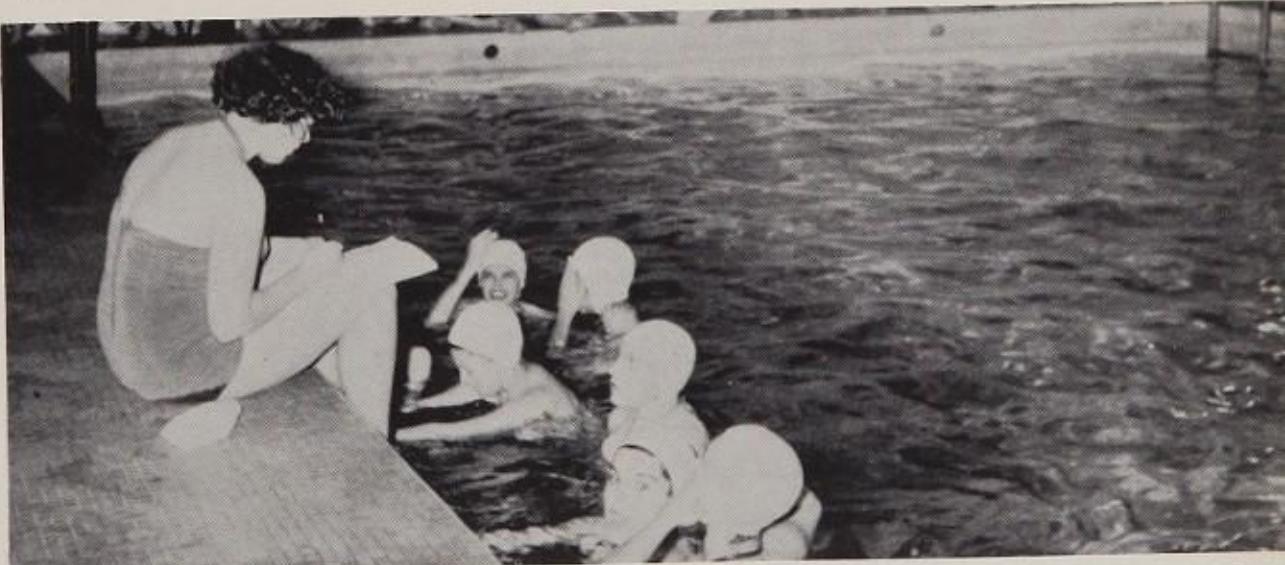

Carolene Caldwell and Annette Clayton are playing badminton, a game that requires quick movement and fast thinking.

helpers

Bounds, Loera, Morin,
Whitely, Shaw, Smith, Burke,
Lester, Magee, Alford, Riley.

Beginning swimmers are instructed in the shallow water; while the advanced swimmers take to the deeper water.

Dear Sue,
One year's gone, with another one to go, and I can still say you're my best friend. I hope you always keep your swell looks and wonderful personality, and you will I'm sure. I hope you get just what you want in life. Here's to all the good times we have had and also to the ones to come. I hope that you and Dennis have the best life together ever, and always have plenty of "wealth, health, and love." I know that you will make the best out of life but lots of luck anyway. I hope you and I are always the best of friends.

May God bless you.

Sue, Carolyn

Dear Sue
Best wishes
Always in life and love
Carolyn

Dear Sue,
I know you want me to write a lot but what can you write
to someone like you.

Yours
Debbie
Gandy

You, I must say that you're a cute, sweet
and a very nice girl.
You have that borderline trait of "a friend
in need, is a friend, indeed!" Thanks
for being my friend

God bless you (in the nicer sense of the saying) your fellow
S.S.W.O.T. Daris.
Marie 3

Sue, you are a real friend. You are one of the sweetest and
cutest girl at T.P.
See you next year
A. S. H. Best wishes to you from me.

Love,
Viola

So one of the best of them all goes wishes of luck
in everything you may desire. Just stay the way you are now. You're really a fine kid.

Always
Miriam Poer

Sue, it has been a really been a pleasure to know you. We have been friends for a long time and I hope that friendship lasts forever. God bless you!
Love, Marj Lusk

Loads of luck
to a real sweet girl. May God be with you always Debbie

Dear Sue,
I've really enjoyed sitting at the dinner table with you in homeroom. May you have the best of everything. Charlotte Mack

Hi Sue,
Hope we all have a swell time next year!
